

Our Mission

Promote quality of care for the special needs of performing artists.

- Develop educational programs
- Encourage communication between artists and providers
- Foster research into the medical problems of performing artists.

Our Members

Medical Professionals,
Artists, Educators,
Administrators, Students

In the fields of research,
education,
and clinical practice.

Members in 28 Countries

artsmed.org

PAMA International Symposium

July 7 - 10, 2016 (Thursday - Sunday)

Weill Cornell Medical Center

New York-Presbyterian

Make it! Not Break it! Creating the Resilient Performing Artist and Athlete

Join us in New York for this momentous event combining the fields of performing arts medicine, sports medicine, and medical education to address artists and performers health issues.

Pre-Conference Certificate Course

July 5 - 6, 2016 (Tues. – Wed.)

Weill Cornell Medical Center

New York-Presbyterian

Extend your learning – attend our 2-day pre-conference certificate course geared toward the practicing professional.

artsmed.org

We support the vision and goals of Athletes and the Arts as a valuable resource for performing artists by linking the sport athlete and performing artist communities.

Founding Sponsors

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY
NEW ORLEANS

artsmed.org

Join Us

Member directory listing
Referral directory listing Networking functions
Comprehensive bibliography Subscription to the Medical Problems of Performing Artists (MPPA), a peer reviewed journal
Symposium discounts
Committee opportunities

artsmed.org

Grow With Us

We are expanding our reach...

Internationally

Into other performing arts areas including voice, acting, and the visual arts

Expanded regional event offerings